

List of Predatory Open Access journals

NKRC Project

CSIR-National Institute of Science Communication and Information
Resources (NISCAIR), 14-Satsang Vihar Marg, New Delhi

August 2013

Background

In the Task Force Meeting of the XII Five Plan Project on “CSIR-wide Access to Online Information Resources”, it was noted that many open access journals have come into being that are exploiting the “author pay” model. There have been many worldwide instances of such predatory open access journals misleading scientists and researchers to publish their research papers in them.

The Task Force was of the view that CSIR scientists and researchers should be made aware of such journals so that we do not publish in these journals.

The Task Force suggested that a list be prepared based on the titles compiled at scholarlyoa.com by Jeffery Beall (<http://www.scholarlyoa.com/>) of the University of Colorado.

In the following pages, the predatory open access journals have been listed. The NKRC Nodal Officers may like to share the list with all the researchers and scientists of their Institute.
